SECTION III The effective date of the Salary and Compensation Schedules as set forth herein, as well as the other provisions regarding compensation and benefits as set forth after this section, shall be May 1, 2005.

SECTION IV The City Council hereby delegates authority to the Administrator from time to time, to raise the hourly rate of any employee up to the maximum amount indicated under the salary and pay schedule for appointed officers and employees as set forth previously in this ordinance up to a maximum of 8% annually. Reduction in pay or other compensation may only be made by the City Council and only upon the recommendation of the Administrator.

SECTION V A. All new employees (new police officers shall not be considered in this category) shall remain on probation for a period of ninety (90) days, said probation period being for the purpose of determining the individual's ability to perform the duties of his or her job. B. All new police officers shall remain on probation for a period of twelve (12) months, said probation period being for the purpose of determining the individual's ability to perform the duties of his or her job. C. Additional probation time may be added at the discretion of the Administrator as deemed necessary after a performance evaluation near or at the end of the probation period.

SECTION VI The City Council hereby delegates authority to the Administrator to raise the hourly rate of any employee up to $2.00 per hour for the purpose of increasing the responsibility of said employee for a specific job and to make said employee a lead man responsible for the managing of a specified job site including all city personnel.

SECTION VII This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in pamphlet form, as required by law.
